

Millennials in the Workforce

Making the "In It For Me" Employee In It For You.

Wednesday, May 27, 2009 1:00 - 4:30 pm
Networking and Social Hour will follow

In a few short years, Millennials will be the the largest generational group represented in the workforce. Are you ready for them? This conference will prepare you to love'em, lead'em and retain'em.

CONFERENCE AGENDA:

THE FUTURE WORKFORCE

Tom Gillaspy, Minnesota State Demographer

Providing work force demographics and statistics.

ENGAGING MILLENNIALS AND PANEL DISCUSSION

Terese Corey Blanck and Judy Anderson, CTC Consultants and Gina Kellogg-Gardner, Monarch Leadership Mary Kay DuChene, Panel Moderator

Retaining and developing these emerging leaders will be what sets your organization apart from the rest!

LEGAL CONSIDERATIONS WHEN EMPLOYING MILLENNIALS

Sonia Miller-Van Oort, Andrea Kiehl, Flynn Gaskins Bennett LLP

- Facebook, Twitter and Blogs: The potential value and potential risks of Social Networking
- What's in a Text? How texting, company blogs and emails impact company litigation
- Millennial's On the Move: How to protect your company's proprietary information and goodwill

BRAIN-BASED APPROACH TO COMMUNICATIONS - IMPORTANT ISSUES FOR ALL GENERATIONS

Lisa Larson, CBIZ Benefits and Dan Yaman, Live Spark.

Making your communication more meaningful and memorable.

Saint Anthony Main Event Centre
219 SE Main Street
Minneapolis, MN 55414
Validated parking at St. Anthony Main Municipal Ramp

Registration begins at 12:30

Sponsored by:

Space is limited, register soon at www.cbiz.com/benefits-mn

(click events in the upper right hand corner)

Call 612-436-4643 with any questions.